Question re. I-95 I have a 2009 Avid 4100 and I'd like to connect using 2 (stereo) cables. Does this mean going to I-95 each way? Also, should I plan to return to the city of my start, if I have no destination? I travel about 3,000 miles a year, but very only at the weekend. I used to do this with my XM radio years ago, never my I-phone. It was easy. I could connect my ipod to the radio one way from home, and then from I-95 my ipod would switch to radio and I'd get the mp3's on the I-phone. The only trick was switching the I-phone's speakers to right, and my ipod to left. Good luck. Click to expand... I had something similar. I first looked for a map in Google Earth or Google Maps that showed the general direction I would be going and in many cases it c6a93da74d
